

Hold On

Tank

It's been a long time since I've come round here
Nothing's changed everything still like before
It's been a long ride one state to the next
Run around baby cause I'm on the attack

I am a loaded gun got you in my sights
Drop dead gorgeous with the roll of a dice
This is your last chance gotta lay it all out
Momma says she's a gonna rock you tonight

Let the rivers flow like they have reason
Let them find their way to the sea
Take back your hopes and desires
Find a way back to me

Hold on, hold on
This time you know that it's gonna be real

I've seen the mountains seen them crumbling down
Slide into the ocean as I'm coming around
I feel the shock waves and I gotta react
Don't have all the answers but I'm not looking back

I've got you on the run like a thief in the night
Chase you from the shadows push you back to the light
You've had your last chance now I'm gonna attack
No one gonna save you got a noose round your neck

Taste the rainbow and let that remind you
You can run but you can not hide
Thought you're immune to my fire
Burn the truth that's inside

Hold on, hold on
This time we know that it's gonna be real

You've got seven days of summer baby
That's all that you're gonna get
Seven days of summer baby that's all...
Baby that's all...
Baby that's all you're gonna get

I am a loaded gun got you in my sights
Drop dead gorgeous with the roll of a dice
This is your last chance gotta lay it all out
Momma says she's a gonna rock you tonight

Let the rivers flow like they have reason
Let them find their way to the sea
Take back your hopes and desires
Find your way back to me

Hold on, hold on
This time you know that it's gonna be real
