I'm walking home and it's so cold but I can feel the warmth of your hand
I'd walk through pouring rain and snow for your wish and every command
It's hard enough for me to say what I want, what I feel
You know I want you to say but, could it ever be real
Look at me now there are tears in my eyes
And it's two in the morning I'll never know how
You can say you're in love and then push me away
I'm wasting my life away, I'm wasting my life away
There's nothing else that I can do you know that it is my whole life
There's only so much to go through and we've got only one night
Look at me now there are tears in my eyes
And it's three in the morning I'll never know how
You can say you're in love and then push me away
I'm wasting my life away, I'm wasting my life away
My whole damn life, I'm wasting my life away, my life, yeah
And now it's all over and I can breath again wiser and older
But I can still feel the pain
Look at me now there are tears in my eyes
And it's five in the morning I'll never know how
You can say you're in love and then push me away
I'm wasting my life away, I'm wasting my life away
I'm wasting my life away, I'm wasting my life away
