

Alone

Tantric

I've got this life in my hands
And it's killing me
I stumbled through this life not knowing that this knife
Yeah, would cut through my hands

You think you're right but I just might
My hands are tied by the lies that blind us
I would never

Just when you think that you've been finding yourself
Is when you find yourself alone
Well, just stop pretending that you're somebody else
When you find yourself, you find yourself alone
Alone

Well, I can't tell you how it's come to this Our problems have become Sealing your anger with a kiss
From the innocent

You think you're right but I just might
My hands are tied by the lies that blind us
I would never

Just when you think that you've been finding yourself
Is when you find yourself alone
Well, just stop pretending that you're somebody else
When you find yourself, you find yourself alone
Alone

Well, you finally got what you wanted
Well, you taunted me so long
Never thinking there's a person behind that wrinkled poster
That's sitting on your wall

Just when you think that you've been finding yourself (I've got this life in my hands)
Is when you find yourself alone (And it's killing me)
Well, just stop pretending that you're somebody else (I've got this l ife in my hands)
When you find yourself, you find yourself alone (And it's killing me)
(I've got this life in my hands)
Alone
(And it's killing me)

Just when you think that you've been finding yourself (I've got this life in my hands)
Is when you find yourself alone (And it's killing me)
Well, just stop pretending that you're somebody else
When you find yourself, you find yourself alone
