

Angry

Tantric

Hey you, sittin' in the corner
Take two minutes is this whatcha want
To project to the populace
Cause that ain't us so walk away

Hey, I don't need to be so angry
Hey, don't need to be so angry

Can we put our fists up and start a revolution
Hey kid moshpit, do you want some

Live life find yourself going
Age is the illusion of knowing
What the fuck are you doing now
Son get some sense of balance it somehow

There's no need to be so angry
Ooh, chill out, there's no need to be so angry

Can we put our fists up and start a revolution
Hey kid moshpit, do you want some
Put it all inside
Take it all in stride
Everybody's gotta fight
But they gotta let it go tonight

Is it because that you want to Never give up on your dreams that
You have made everything at war
Known to belearn as a known fact
Natural to always want more
Promise they made me but not grasped
That's what we started this shit for
Not to waste you're such a snake boy
That's why we started it

Hey, I don't need to be so angry
Hey, don't need to be so angry

Can we put our fists up and start a revolution
Hey kid moshpit, do you want some
Put it all inside
Take it all in stride
Everybody's gotta fight
But they gotta let it go tonight
