

Guess I'll Have To Love Him More

Tanya Tucker

She's such a woman, and I'm just a girl
To her he's a plaything, but to me he's the world
But I'm so afraid she'll take him
And if she does she'll make him forget about me

Guess I'll have to love him more
Guess I'll have to love him more
And hold him tighter than she would
Kiss him sweeter than she ever could

Guess I'll have to love him more
More than he's been loved before
Cause if we're ever gonna make it to heaven's door
Guess I'll have to love him more

Cause if we're ever gonna make it to heaven's door
Guess I'll have to love him more
