

Shotgun

Tanya Tucker

As you travel down the trail of life there'll be dangers you'll encounter Many rivers you will have to cross in a lost territory

There'll be mountains high and valleys low
But wherever you go
I wanna ride shotgun
be by your side

Down the road of life,
come rain or shine
I wanna be someone
who's always there by you

To protect your heart
with a love that's true
Until the journey's done,
I wanna ride shotgun

There'll be deserts
you can't cross alone without someone there beside you

But together
we can tame the West Raid the bad lands,
face the bandits

'Cos I love you
with a love too strong To let you go all alone
I wanna ride shotgun,
be by your side

Down the road of life,
come rain or shine
I wanna be someone
who's always there by you

To protect your heart
with a love that's true
Until the journey's done
I wanna ride shotgun,

Be by your side
Down the road of life,
come rain or shine

To protect your heart
Until the journey's done,

ooh

I wanna ride shotgun

ooh

Raid the bad lands

I wanna ride shotgun

Face the bandits

ooh
