

Again & Again

Taproot

sick and angered by my friends extremely cold and heartless talk behind my back about me to my friends the source a jealous passion towards a spirit stuck in contention and fame just need some time to myself again need to bring back the old days when i was in control of my life again and again just endangered with my friends extremely bold and honest i'll be when it comes to me i said i was sorry but you don't hear me i tried to say that i was sorry to you but you don't think i speak honestly that's ok cause i can move on now i am so sorry no
