

Idly

Tarnation

So uncertain I double as a shadow or someone who doesn't understand.

Blatant or misshapen and far too weary to pretend to understand

In my mind's eye, I am love's pauper and I am going nowhere.

But, I know there's a little piece of heaven - a piece of heaven somewhere.

Idly, idly, please come take my hand.

Somewhere I know there is a castle floating in the air.

Idly I am taking my time but someday, I will be there.

Idly, idly, idly, please come take my hand.
