

For A While

Tash

If I'm honest, I lied
I don't see the bigger picture with you on my mind
You belong somewhere distant

My fantasies feel like gravity
I'm sinking to the ground
I'm happily woken from a dream
Looking at you now

Lately, I loved you for a while
And it made me feel lovely for a while
But save me, don't think I need you for a while
'Cause maybe I only loved you for a while
But no more, no more
No more, no more

If I'm honest, I'm shy
Too shy to simply tell you
That you're not on my mind
Like you were when I first met you

My fantasies feel like gravity
I'm sinking to the ground
I'm happily woken from a dream
Looking at you now

Baby, I loved you for a while
And it made me feel lovely for a while
But save me, don't think I need you for a while
'Cause maybe I only loved you for a while
But no more

My fantasies feel like gravity
I'm happily woken from a dream
My fantasies feel like gravity, no
I'm happily woken from a dream

Baby (No), I loved you for a while (I only, loved you)
And it made me feel lovely for a while (Made)
But save me, don't think I need you for a while (Save me)
'Cause maybe I only loved you for a while (Maybe)
But no more, no more, yeah, yeah, yeah
I only loved you for a while
I only loved you
I only loved you
