

Romeo

Tash

Mhm Mhm Mhm
Mhm babe

I wish I wasn't afraid
To shed my skin, oh I did
And by the time I spill the tea
I might be dead in my coffin, maybe
What goes around comes around
Nah I just got it
Can't really shake away the pain
Like it's a drug, can't come off it

Mhm
I'm just tryna get used to this nuisance
Think I'm losing it
Wonder if it's all in my head and I'm full of foolishness
Stop acting like you're Sherlock tryna work it out
I'm new to this, looking like a fool in this

Romeo take me home
Give me an antidote
You think you understand my issues
You don't know nothing though
Nobody else bothers to listen
I've gotta let it go
Thousand bottles inside of me
'Bout to overflow

Mhm Mhm Mhm
I don't want nothing but you
Mhm Mhm Mhm
You don't know half of the truth
Mhm Mhm Mhm
I don't want nothing but you
I don't want nothing but you

So tell me why I'm always in tatters
Now why do stupid things matter
Why we fixing it, on being at the top of the ladder
Why do we watch the evening news, if it's only getting sadder
Why are you looking at me blankly, if you know all the answers
Well, inevitability, we go back to sleep
Wait until a violent dawn comes to see the melancholy
You know you can't even explain
Why we acting this way
How the hell you supposed to comprehend
The way my mind behaves

Romeo take me home
Give me an antidote
You think you understand my issues
You don't know nothing though
Nobody else bothers to listen
I've gotta let it go
Thousand bottles inside of me
'Bout to overflow

Mhm Mhm Mhm
I don't want nothing but you
Mhm Mhm Mhm
You don't know half of the truth
Mhm Mhm Mhm
I don't want nothing but you
I don't want nothing but you

Romeo, Romeo you barely know me though
I'm not saying we'd be better off just on our own
I don't need you playing guessing games to show me, oh
You been needing me the most so keep your heart afloat
Romeo, Romeo you barely know me though
I'm not saying we'd be better off just on our own
I don't need you playing guessing games to show me, oh
You been needing me the most so keep your heart afloat

Mhm Mhm Mhm (oh)
I don't want nothing with you (nothing but you)
Mhm Mhm Mhm (I don't want nothing but you)
You don't know half of the truth
Mhm Mhm Mhm (hey baby)
I don't want nothing but you
I don't want nothing but you (with you mhm)

Romeo, Romeo
