

The Give And The Take

Tash

Don't you forget, don't forget

Welcome to the heart, it can be real ugly
Emotions are an art, but some just feel unworthy
To be seen as something whimsical
Oh, how human of you to feel something so dark
And use it to dehumanize me

'Cause I, I made I mistake
I'm back where I started, baby
'Cause I, I feel myself break
That's the give and the take, baby

Don't you forget, not to forfeit
Don't you forget (Don't forget), not to forfeit

Welcome to the eyes, they don't see it all clearly Sometimes they magnify what is only a small query
I'll still find them whimsical, oh, human of me, to be forgivin g of the eyes
That have only seen right through me

'Cause I, I made I mistake
I'm back where I started, baby
'Cause I, I feel myself break
That's the give and the take, baby

Don't you forget, not to forfeit
Don't you forget (Don't you forget, don't forget), not to forfe
it

'Cause I, I made I mistake
I'm back where I started, baby
'Cause I, I feel myself break
That's the give and the take, baby

Don't you forget (Don't you forget), not to forfeit
Don't you forget (Don't you forget, don't forget), not to forfe
it
Don't you forget
Don't forget
