

Three Dimensional

Tash

Yeah, yeah, yeah

I thought you were an anomaly, yeah
I can't discern the way I loved then
It doesn't hurt, just an every feeling
I'm not that girl who loved you back then, oh

Epiphany is like nothing else
I was so caught up in your needs that I fell short in myself
When I finally had mustered up the stage to let you go
Realized that by design, our desires ebb and flow like that Like that

I was wrong before when I defined the arts
I'm three-dimensional and, no, it's not a fault
And I will fail some more, but I'm allowed to choke
And I'm supposed to say that's not my way of thought
No more, ah, no more
Yeah

To think I was so incognisant
'Bout what I want (What I want)
And the way I loved then
I saw myself with a different lens (Lens)
I'm not that girl who loved you back then, oh

Revery like nothing else
When I gave up being walked on and gave the love back to myself
When I finally had mustered up the nerve to let you go
Realized that by design, our emotions ebb and flow like that
Yeah, yeah, like that, mm

I was wrong before when I defined the arts (Defined the arts)
I'm three-dimensional and, no, it's not a fault
And I will fail some more, but I'm allowed to choke (I'm allowed)
And I'm supposed to say that's not my way of thought
No more, no more
No more
I'm three-dimensional and, no, it's not a fault
Three-dimensional and, no, it's not a fault
Three-dimensional and, no, it's not a fault
