

I Want More

Tasha Cobbs

We had some good times
Late-night drives
I was clearing my mind
You were taking the lies

Telling me it's gonna be alright

We had some fair fights
So many tears in my eyes
I was talking so loud
I was out of my mind

But You were so, so kind

I push, you pull
You bring it all together, together

I know I haven't seen all there is to see
I want more
And if there's anything that's best for me
It's You, Lord

Oh. I look at my life
You were shaping my story
Writing Your glory
In every line
Yes. You were
And it was worth all that time
Yes it was

I push, you pull
You bring it all together, together

I know I haven't seen all there is to see
I want more
And if there's anything that's best for me
It's You, Lord

'Cause I want more
More than a feeling
More than a miracle, sign or a healing
'Cause if there's anything that's best for me
It's You, Lord

You
It's always been You
I want more of You
I want more of You
Yes. I do

It's You
In the night, in the day
Any time, any place

It's You
At a door, at a wall
You can work through it all

It's You
When I'm stuck and afraid
Or I'm walking the waves

It's You
It's always been You

I know I haven't seen all there is to see
I want more
Yes. I do
I know
'Cause I want more than a feeling
More than a miracle
More than a healing
And if there's anything that's best for me

I want more
I want more
You're more than just a feeling
I need
I need
I need more
Oh. If there's anything that's best for me
I know it's You
I know it's You
It's always been You

I know I haven't seen all there is to see
I want more
