

bad ones

Tate McRae

You say that you've been missing me
Every single time we're not together
And I know that I've been gone from everything
But I needed that
Say you wish that you were kissing me
It comes outta nowhere, whenever
But I'm kinda sick and tired, you're so selfish
Say that I'm not coming back to you

But wait, don't leave
Hate that it's so easy for you
Wait, I can't see
Try to walk away

I keep falling for the bad ones
The always-make-me-sad ones
Trying hard to hold my ground
But it always ties me down, yeah, the bad ones
Way too good at falling for the bad ones

You're really good at tricking me
Making me believe I'm not enough
And I'm always so confident
Till you come and trip me up
Why you so caught up with fixing me?
You know that's something that I really hate
You're the only thing about me that should change
You're my one mistake

But wait, don't leave
Hate that it's so easy for you
Wait, I can't see
Try to walk away

I keep falling for the bad ones
The always-make-me-sad ones
Trying hard to hold my ground
But it always ties me down, yeah, the bad ones
Way too good at falling for the bad ones
Way too good at falling for the bad ones

But wait, don't leave
Hate that it's so easy for you
Wait, I can't see
Try to walk away

Trying hard to hold my ground
But it always ties me down, yeah, the bad ones
Way too good at falling for the bad ones
