

My Mind Don't Match My Mouth (I Wrote Another Song)

Tate McRae

It's like I'm frozen and can't move
My brain is broken only with you
Put on a cover and play it cool
I always have the same excuse

Cause I can't get these words out
Though my thoughts are oh, so loud
My heart just wants to shout
But my mind don't match my mouth

My mind don't match my mouth
My mind don't match my mouth

Oh, boy I've known you for all these years
And never once have I made it clear
That I am falling, falling for you
Cause' if I told you, we'd fall through

Oh, I can't get these words out
Though my thoughts are oh, so loud
My heart just wants to shout
But my mind don't match my mouth

My mind don't match my mouth
My mind don't match my mouth

These words just can't come out
Cause my mind don't match my mouth
But then again...
If I overthink my chances could be over in a blink
But then again...
If I say too much could it risk the two of us?

Oh, I can't get these words out
Though my thoughts are oh, so loud
My heart just wants to shout
But my mind don't match my mouth
