

Everybody workin' real hard, yeah
From Wall Street to the small-town barber
Everybody in a dark place, yeah
Crying tears like a river runs

No umbrella and you're caught in the rain
Running low on faith, can I get an amen?
This is for where life is comin' at ya
Hands up, here's your anthem

If you're having a hard day
Ain't no way you're giving up, up, up, up, up
If you're dealing with heartbreak
Ain't no way you're giving up, up, up, up, up
Keep your head high, keep on fighting
'Cause the pressure makes a diamond
Tomorrow's a new day, yeah
Ain't no way you're giving up, up, up, up, up

When the world is feeling heavy (Yeah)
Another doomsday-news cycle spinnin'
With all the negativity (Yeah)
Don't forget you can shut it off
Try to catch your mind when it runs
Easier said than done
Can I get an amen?
This is for where life is comin' at ya
Hands up, here's your anthem

If you're having a hard day
Ain't no way you're giving up, up, up, up, up
If you're dealing with heartbreak
Ain't no way you're giving up, up, up, up, up
Keep your head high, keep on fighting
'Cause the pressure makes a diamond
Tomorrow's a new day, yeah
Ain't no way you're giving up, up, up, up, up

Tomorrow's a new day
Ain't no way you're giving up, up, up, up, up

Ain't giving up
Ain't giving up
Ain't giving up

If you're having a hard day
Ain't no way you're giving up, up, up, up, up
If you're dealing with heartbreak
Ain't no way you're giving up, up, up, up, up
Keep your head high, keep on fighting
'Cause the pressure makes a diamond
Tomorrow's a new day, yeah
Ain't no way you're giving up, up, up, up, up

Ain't giving up
(Come on)
Ain't giving up

Ain't giving up
(Ain't giving up, no)
Ain't giving up
