

Have you ever had one of those days
That had you freakin' out
Nothing ever goes right
Makes you start thinking
'Bout what you want
And everything that you need
And if you start losing control
Just see the top of the rhyme
You got a head start
Now I'm tryin' to figure out
Why you play a game you know
Will never be won
Think about ooh
There's not a lot I can do
But if you take a good look at yourself
Your gonna see that I'm stronger
It's not about you
I found you breakin' the rules
You gotta give it all up
To show me that you're gonna be stronger
Where you go and who you know
And I don't care a lot,
But what I can't care is I don't dare you
To show me what you got.
Take your money. Take your honey
Take Sir Laugh-a-lot
You got a lot of friends but you don't get me
I'm just getting even.
Think about ooh
There's not a lot I can do
But if you take a good look at yourself
Your gonna see that I'm stronger
It's not about you
I found you breakin' the rules
You gotta give it all up
To show me that you're gonna be stronger
Maybe that's the plan now
Maybe I just don't understand
How you can get off, non-stop
Thinking you're coming back
Now that I'm in total control
And you've been wasting you time
I see you low-ride, drive-by
It's not how you play the game
It's how you play the loser
Think about ooh
There's not a lot I can do
But if you take a good look at yourself
Your gonna see that I'm stronger
It's not about you
I found you breakin' the rules
You gotta give it all up
To show me that you're gon
