

Emotional Support Ex

Tayla Parx

You ruined my fucking birthday
Who invited you in the first place
You can blame it on the tea
Instead of saying you was thirsty
I like em nasty did me dirty
This night s'posed to be for me
You made it all about we
But didn't do it in a good way

You way too open, now I'm closed

I guess I'll call my emotional support ex
Cause my new bitch on some dog shit
Got myself into some more mess
I had to call my emotional support ex
Hey I'm right here on your doorstep
Can you be there for me one last time?
Last time
One last time

How could you be out here so careless
I almost loved you, I'm embarrassed
But ever since I set you free
You still try to make me jealous
You're no good for me, no bueno
You ain't no angel, you a-hole
You just plotting on my peace
Snatched my heart off the table

Baby we're open, now it's closed

I guess I'll call my emotional support ex
Cause my new bitch on some dog shit
Got myself into some more mess
I had to call my emotional support ex
Hey I'm right here on your doorstep
Can you be there for me one last time?
Last time
One last time
