

Good Enough

Tayla Parx

Who do you run to, when you need somebody to hold on to?
Touchin' on your body, take control on you
Tell me who do you run to?
Who do you run to, when you need somebody to hold you down?
Or just somebody to be around
Tell me who do you run to?
I know you ain't the one for guarantees
That ain't even what I need
Gemini's, up and down, that's what keeps me comin' 'round
Goin' crazy, let you drive, when you're rollin by my side
Harder than it has to be, can't discribe it easily

'Cause baby sometimes, you love me, you love now
Baby sometimes (sometimes you), you love me, you love me now (love me now)
And for now that's good enough
For now that's good
For now that's good
For now we good
Right now we're good enough
For now we good
For now we're good enough
For now we good
