

Last Words

Tayla Parx

What's this coming out the blue?
A UFO I loved in another life, hey
I didn't think you'd land so soon
But here you come just crashing out of the sky (out of the sky)

Oh I, oh I, could be there to listen
Get it all off your chest (your mind)
But baby, I'll admit it
Boy you know the more you cry, I smile
Waited for this if I'm honest
I thought sorry's what I wanted
But what is it worth?

I suffered the hurt (I hurt)
'Cause you had someone you didn't deserve (deserve)
Such a shame we couldn't make it work (it work)
Fuck what you promised, if I'm being honest, oh I
I'm so sick of those famous last words
I'm sorry, you trippin', I'm not lyin'
I'm so sick of those famous last words
I'm sorry, you trippin', I'm not lyin'
I'm so sick of those famous last words

Sometimes it's not a broken heart
It's just two people growing, growing apart
And part of me wants to be cool
But that's impossible, we're two worlds apart

Oh I, oh I, could be there to listen
Get it all off your chest (your mind)
But baby, I'll admit it
Boy you know the more you cry, I smile
Waited for this if I'm honest
I thought sorry's what I wanted
But what is it worth?

I suffered the hurt (I hurt)
'Cause you had someone you didn't deserve (deserve)
Such a shame we couldn't make it work (it work)
Fuck what you promised, if I'm being honest, oh I
I'm so sick of those famous last words
I'm sorry, you trippin', I'm not lyin'
I'm so sick of those famous last words
I'm sorry, you trippin', I'm not lyin'
I'm so sick of those famous last words
