

Options (Interlude)

Tayla Parx

I mean, yeah, I've been...exploring other options if I'm being all the way honest with you, but you can't get me another choice, remember? What was I supposed to do...be lonely?

Anybody else before you
And everybody in between you
Never compared to you, to you, to you
Anybody else before you
And everybody in between you
Only ever made me miss you, miss you, miss you
