

Rebound

Tayla Parx

Yeah
I'ma make sure you hear me this time, mmh
Yeah

Using me to cover up a wound
You need a Band-Aid, not a baby boo
Uh, see, I let you get over on me
So I hope that you got over that 'tude
Yeah, didn't have to stop me in the fire, uh
See, I would've been happy on the side, yeah
And you didn't have to play all these games
To lose me at the end of the day

Shoot your shot, shoot your shot
You outta bounds so cut your loss, I could've boxed
Now I'm Dikembe with the block, yeah, with the block
Said I'm Dikembe with the block, yeah, with the block
Boy, you should've...

Oh, you should've told me I was only just a rebound
Would've made the bounce back easier for me, now
Didn't have to lay up, didn't have to stay up
I would've been down, baby, no offense
But oh, you should've told me I was only just a rebound
Would've made the bounce back easier for me, now
You've been using cheat codes, I gave you a free throw
I would've been down, baby, no offense

Baby, no offense (Skrرت, skrrt)
No offense (Skrرت, skrrt)
No offense, no offense

Now they ain't the only one you miss
Had to pull up on you with the switch
I let you get over on me
So I'm hoping you can get over this

Shoot your shot, shoot your shot
You outta bounds so cut your loss, I could've boxed
Now I'm Dikembe with the block, yeah, with the block
Said I'm Dikembe with the block, yeah, with the block
Boy, you should've...

Would've made the bounce back easier for me, now
Didn't have to lay up, didn't have to stay up
I would've been down, baby, no offense
But oh, you should've told me I was only just a rebound
Would've made the bounce back easier for me, now
You've been using cheat codes, I gave you a free throw
I would've been down, baby, no offense

(Baby, no offense)
No offense (Baby, no offense)
No offense (Baby, no offense)
No offense, no offense (Ayy, ayy, ayy, Badmon)

I ain't gon' hold you, girl, ain't gon' hold you
No offense, but I could couch you, yeah, I could couch you
Stick this D like I'm supposed to, like I'm supposed to Shoot my shotgun in my holster
Keep it on the down low, we ain't never throw no poster
Said she need a ring, I told her please don't get her hopes up
You know I'm a player, baby, I might double cross you
Step back and I fade away, I'm off, ayy
When it come to ballin', swear I never took a loss, ayy

Shoot your shot, shoot your shot
You outta bounds so cut your loss, I could've boxed
Now I'm Dikembe with the block, yeah, with the block
Said I'm Dikembe with the block, yeah, with the block
Boy, you should've...

Oh, you should've told me I was only just a rebound
Would've made the bounce back easier for me, now
Didn't have to lay up, didn't have to stay up
I would've been down, baby, no offense
But oh, you should've told me I was only just a rebound
Would've made the bounce back easier for me, now
You've been using cheat codes, I gave you a free throw
I would've been down, baby, no offense

Baby, no offense (Skrrt, skrrt)
No offense (Skrrt, skrrt)
No offense, no offense (Skrrt, skrrt)
Baby, no offense (Skrrt, skrrt)
No offense (Skrrt, skrrt)
No offense, no offense
