

Slow Dancing

Tayla Parx

I've never been so frustrated
With calling someone baby
Guess you could say you're unusual
Falling in love for me was unlikely
Not low-key, but high-key
I'll spill my heart all over this floor

If i admit you got me scribbled in with baby pink
I blush when you're crossing my mind
This might be hard to hear when this coming from me
It's not easy to be
A typical girl

I like diamonds, I like pearls
Guess I'm a typical girl
Making love around the world
I like, I like, I like, I like slow dancin'
I like, I like, I like romancin'
I like, I like, I like, don't panic
But I think I'm a typical girl
I think I'm a typical girl

When I was seven years old I said that I would never get married
My cacti are the only bouquet I could ever carry I'm too old to hold my daddy's hand, don't you think?
But I'm health conscious need karats on that ring

If i admit you got me scribbled in with baby pink
I blush when you're crossing my mind
This might be hard to hear when this coming from me
It's not easy to be
A typical girl

I like diamonds, I like pearls
Guess I'm a typical girl
Making love around the world
I like, I like, I like, I like slow dancin'
I like, I like, I like romancin'
I like, I like, I like, don't panic
But I think I'm a typical girl
I think I'm a typical girl
