

Hangman

Taylor Acorn

Hey, what you doin' up there?
Would you care to expand?
I'm holdin' on by a thread
Are you playin' hangman?
Did you run out of letters?
(One, two, three, ha!)

I'm screamin' into the abyss
What did I do to deserve this?
In a past life, tell me, was I a criminal?
Sick of playin' guessin' games
Are you gamblin' with my name?
I don't know yet, tell me, is it subliminal?

No coincidence, it's personal now
So if you could, just cut me down

Hey, what you doin' up there?
Would you care to expand?
I'm holdin' on by a thread
Are you playin' hangman?
Did you run out of letters?
Am I stuck here forever?

And I tried it all from A to Z
There's no relief, can barely breathe
Wakin' up, shit outta luck, damn, my neck hurts
Shake my fists up to the sky
Is it my fate caught on the line?
Can't you go easy on me?

Hey, what you doin' up there?
Would you care to expand?
I'm holdin' on by a thread
Are you playin' hangman?
Did you run out of letters?
Am I stuck here forever? (Stuck here forever)
Hey, could you give me a break?
Is it out of my hands?
Mutilatin' my body while you're playin' hangman
Did you run out of letters? (Did you run out of letters?)
Am I stuck here forever?

Could you spell it out for me?
Could you spell it out for me?
Put me out my misery (Can you spell it out?)
Could you spell it out for me? (Can you spell it out?)

Could you spell it out for me?
Could you spell it out for me?
Put me out my misery
Could you spell it out for me?
