

As Long As You Leave

Taylor Austin Dye

Spent all these years just playin' Cinderella
You don't know by now, I don't know what to tell ya
I guess I'll be the bad guy one last time
That big ol' flat screen, baby you can have it
Yeah there's two month's rent, underneath the mattress
If you stay gone, you can take whatever you need

As long as you leave that j45
The Ford in the drive
Baby long as it ain't me
It don't really matter
Go get what you're after
Whatever the hell that is
Go ahead, say whatever, drag my name through the mud
Tell 'em all you were never even really in love
Where you go, who you're with, don't matter to me
As long as you leave

Keep all your sorries, baby take 'em with ya
Try to call your mama maybe she can come and get ya
Hope she comes and take you right out of Tennessee
Baby you're free

As long as you leave that j45
The Ford in the drive
Baby long as it ain't me
It don't really matter
Go get what you're after
Whatever the hell that is
Go ahead, say whatever, drag my name through the mud
Tell 'em all you were never even really in love
Where you go, who you're with, don't matter to me
As long as you leave

As long as you leave
I won't pick another fight
Cry every night
You won't have to worry bout me
You can live your life
And maybe we can finally agree

As long as you leave that j45
The Ford in the drive
Baby long as it ain't me
It don't really matter
Go get what you're after
Whatever the hell that is
Go ahead, say whatever, drag my name through the mud
Tell 'em all you were never even really in love
Where you go, who you're with, don't matter to me
As long as you leave
