

Echo

Taylor Austin Dye

Maybe I should move out
Cause you made it clear that you've moved on
But I'm not alone
Just cuz you left doesn't mean your gone

Oooo I hear your footsteps down the hall
Oooo maybe you're still here after all

I can hear the echo
Cutting through the noise
Trying to forget you
But I don't have the choice
Yeah this house is haunted
You left me with your ghost
You set my world on fire
Now I'm breathing the smoke
See your shadow
Through through the window
Hear your whisper when the wind blows
Swear I'm trying to let you go
I still hear your echo

I've been trying to sleep
But your memory keeps me up
Then you're there in my dreams
Caught in between
What I thought we were and what it was

Oooo I see the writing on the wall
Oooo maybe you're still here after all

I can hear the echo
Cutting through the noise
Trying to forget you
But I don't have the choice
Yeah this house is haunted
You left me with your ghost
You set my world on fire
Now I'm breathing the smoke
See your shadow
Through through the window
Hear your whisper when the wind blows
Swear I'm trying to let you go
I still hear your echo

Locked up in the corners of my mind
I'm the one that's keeping you alive
There's no good way to say goodbye
Where does love go when we let it die

I can hear the echo
Cutting through the noise
You set my world on fire

Now I'm breathing the smoke
See your shadow
Hear your whisper when the wind blows
Swear I'm trying to let you go
