

Fall Back Fools

Taylor Bennett

Times like these afternoons
We find ourselves in two
Blinding lights and jewels might make us some fools
But I'm falling back for you

Don't hold me back
Hold me down, don't stop me
Don't worry about it
You would ask for it, so I got you
I'mma' hold you down, not have your back
That's hostage
I ain't never wanna be no baller
I ain't never really been so heartless
I ain't never felt like I'm garbage
I struggle to keep my conscious
Astray from demons and goblins
A ways from hustling and robbing
Oh, mobbing and causing problems
My issues is not your problems
And you're not here to solve them
It hurts me to be so honest

Times like these afternoons
We find ourselves in two
Blinding lights and jewels might make us some fools
But I'm falling back for you

"Don't take me here, don't give me that"
And you bought it
"Thanks so much, This too much"
But you got it
"This ain't us, this ain't love"
Is what my heart say
"Can't keep up, I give up"
Cause that shit pointless
Girl, you really want everything
Boy, you think you know everything
You really only want Johnny Bling To call your name
He got your chain
You hardly change
Protect your claim, huh
So you grow up and realize that I'm into real guys
I don't think you realize that I'm into real guys
I don't think you realize that I'm into real girls
And I hate the fake pearls, I hate the big house
I hate the fast cars, I hate the spotlight
I hate to walk right, I hate to sit up
I hate to get up
Who's world's your world
If it's too fake to live in, so give up
Girl you really want everything
Girl you think you know everything
You really only want wedding rings
You called it off. You called a bluff
It's all the rush and I'll remain stuck
Still love you my Lois Lane, Kryptonite
Fill my veins with joy and pain

Cause it's all the same stuff
And it's all the same bluff

Times like these afternoons
We find ourselves in two
Blinding lights and jewels might make us some fools
But I'm falling back for you

Times like these afternoons
We find ourselves in two
Blinding lights and jewels might make us some fools
But I'm falling back for you
