

Good Guy

Taylor Bennett

How dumb are you to play by their rules?
Four walls and the TV's an institute
Stop tryna tell me what I'm seeing isn't true
'Cause things aren't what they seem when I dream of you (Things aren't what they-)
How dumb are you to play by their rules?

Another shawty from the Westside
She do anything for a good vibe
Another chick that's on the Eastside
She do anything just to sleep right
Behind the drugs and the streetlights
Anything for a good guy
Takes a lot to make a girl cry
Anything for a good guy

Anything, she'll do anything for diamond rings
For everything, she'll do anything, no in-between
For coffee shops, fast cars, money, and finer things
'Cause she's a boss, but at loss for everything that gleams
Call us rejects, punks, and misfits, just don't call on Christmas
I learned to write my thoughts, not scream 'em so you won't forget it
Know that you different from the rest in that assorted distance
Don't you go missin' in the morning, gotta call mo' bitches
I know this is makin' distance and I don't mean to diss you
I got issues, breakin' weed down, but girl, I'm tryna fix you
Know you itchin', drug talkin', club poppin', we all plug walkin'
Unplugged and out the socket, we gon' fuckin' shock 'em, blocka, blocka
Helicopters and the trending topics
Hit the tropics, let's hit the tropics
No more TV watchin', TV watchin', no TV watchin'
And the TV's talkin', TV's talkin', TV's talkin'
