

In My Head

Taylor Bennett

She can paint the world without you
I still thank the lord that I found you
Wake up, my alarm clock is the reminder
That every time I doze off I need my meds
Splish splash, kick back, and give a deep stare
What the fuck is going on with my life

'Cause we all at the party and callin' a car
We got Nina on the molly now we gon' take it too far
I put time in for this time out, I got no sun in the dark
I don't know where I should start, I don't know where else to park
I hate models, video vixens always good at they parts
I can't lie baby, I be out, and yeah I be reachin' for stars
I might just pick up guitar, just need a lift in my car
Say I don't love you like I love you, baby, guilty as charged

She can paint the world without you
I still thank the lord that I found you
Wake up, my alarm clock is the reminder
That every time I doze off I need my meds
Splish splash, kick back, and give a deep stare
What the fuck is going on with my life
She can paint the world without you
I still thank the lord that I found you

I'm on the way, you are the one
I numb the pain, got a lot to say
I know you pay, you pullin' fast
Know what to do, do what you say
Now what you been, you understand
You and your bae, that's how you roll
I remember, you'd say
Bonnie and Clyde 'til we die, we gon' ride either way

Dolla $ign!
Either way we ride, we gon' ride (Ride)
Please don't switch sides, switch sides (Side)
I know it ain't easy all the time
Sometimes I go overboard, I hate it when you ignore me
Missed calls, no response
Leave the text on read, a night alone in my bed
I'm thinkin' of you, prolly out with your crew
Havin' fun without me
While everything around me remind me of you

She can paint the world without you
I still thank the lord that I found you
Wake up, my alarm clock is the reminder
That every time I doze off I need my meds
Splish splash, kick back, and give a deep stare
What the fuck is going on with my life
She can paint the world without you
I still thank the lord that I found you
