Does it really make you feel like a rockstar?
When every single streaming record hits the top charts
When every time you meet and greet her she's a hot thot
And when you need to take a breather it's a drop top
Does it really make you feel like a rockstar?
When every single streaming record hits the top charts
When every time you meet and greet her she's a hot thot
And when you need to take a breather it's a drop top
Does it really make you feel like a rockstar?

Knowin' everything you got came with a hard cost
Knowin' you gotta keep two Glocks in like all your cars
Knowin' what the hand is, still niggas gon' pull your card
Niggas hate superstars, aimin' at shooting stars
We born in the dark
I found it like too early
Like Jack on the rocks, I'm swirling
I'm so late I'm that early, I'm perfectly imperfect
You love me on my worst days, I ain't mention your birthday
Well Twitter's a weird place, my fans like my rib cage
I love you like tomorrow 'cause tomorrow gets misplaced
They write about me, talk about you, talk about our ways
We play it the hard way, it ain't dark when you stargaze
Our cave is the arcade, the rockstar did okay
The standing ova' is a glass of Rosay
The man that pressed play can now turn the page
And now it's no rage

Does it really make you feel like a rockstar?
When every single streaming record hits the top charts
When every time you meet and greet her she's a hot thot
