

Today

Taylor Bennett

Today (Today)

The cops kicked down my door and screamed, "Hooray" (Ooh-ooh)
With freeze pops, drinks and Backwoods, plus 2K
The news guys said, "No world turned grey, again"
The only thing better than the best days are the ones that don't end

Let me get my mind right, right, right
We done been up all night, bright lights
Rolling through the city like a bike ride
Tryna find a club with the right vibes
I ain't never really been a nice guy
I'm in touch with the night sky
How high? Sci-fi
And sometimes home feel distant
We just wanna have our time
We just wanna have our space
Remember tomorrow what we know today
Break the boat out the bottle, save it for a rainy day
You can't drink this pain away
Stay afloat, don't fade away

Today

I put all my cards on hold, had a good day
Today
I left all my cash at home, had a good day

Open my eyes and I didn't know what today was gonna bring
But I'm ready, ready, ready now for anything
Got my gloves on and my fists up like the beer champ
Life been going, sucker punch me
Dodging upper cuts, moving this way and that Never giving up, gonna give it right back
Doing it for love, nothing better than that Looking like today is a good day

Today

I put all my cards on hold, had a good day
Today
I left all my cash at home, had a good day

Take you to the sushi place that always likes to renovate
And argue on the interstate home (Love you)
I'm always just a minute late
I love when you sit and wait
I don't want you to run away, girl
It's too many in this race
I can't go for second place
I'm gon' have to demonstrate, girl (Playing me)
Squeeze you like Pomegranate
Love you while you're here today
I don't want you to detonate, no
Any whip I drive, cruise to cruise like Tommy Conversate like zombie
Try to speak like Ghandi
Man, don't know boundaries
You can ask they mommies
I need that to align

I know stars that are blinding
We sip on liquor to vomit
I'ma need more to rewind it
I'ma need more to design it
We tryna switch up the climate
When I make it rain, I'm reminded
That every dollar come with hard work
So you know I gotta hit the mall first
With a wishlist, with a mall clerk

So far I found only moon shoes
Okay, now I'm reloading
(So deep, if it's good I'll for you)
How good does it feel?
Sometimes I'm the highest up with you
How big are those heels?
(So deep, if it's good I'll for you)
Crying out day to day, out by the ocean
Okay, now I'm reloading
Have you ever wanted someone?
Wanted want someone else had Thought you were the only one
You ain't the only one
