

Way Back When

Taylor Ray Holbrook

I remember being young wild and free
Doing things we weren't supposed to be
We rarely ever crossed the line
Maybe a few times
Tarzan on a rope swing into a little creek
Somehow our dreams became our life
Ya'll there was nothing like

Riding around backroads
Nowhere to be so we driving slow
Playing old songs and we'd all sing along
Didn't care if we missed a beat
Seeing her hair flying everywhere
Like she's still right beside me
Sometimes I think back on way back when and wish
I could do it again, yeah-yeah
I could do it again, yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah

Out here we slow up sit in them chairs that fold up
Man I just hit my limit had to put that fishing pole up
But that's okay got a new day and we're ready to enjoy it
Got a cooler full of cold ones and ya boy bout to destroy it
She be sitting pretty soaking up them rays
When she pull that bottle from her lips, you can see the smile on her face, I won't Take it for granted is all that I'm thinking
My people these moments just let them all sink in Here we go

Riding around backroads
Nowhere to be so we driving slow
Playing old songs and we'd all sing along
Didn't care if we missed a beat
Seeing her hair flying everywhere
Like she's still right beside me
Sometimes I think back on way back when and wish
I could do it again, yeah-yeah
I could do it again, yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah

Man life is such a blessing ya'll
You gotta grow through what you go through
Make memories with those you cherish
And if you ever wanna take it back in time with me
Press rewind, close your eyes and take it way back when
