

What If

Taylor Ray Holbrook

Red lips
Watch your mouth whispering those secrets
Girl I wanna mess up that lipstick
I'd be lying if I ever told you no

Midnight
Making memories under the moonlight
Something in my gut tells me this feels right
And I can't fight it anymore

Whoa, but what if?
I take a chance on you
Do what we wanna do
And what if?
These feelings keep on getting stronger
And our kisses get a little longer
It would be my honor...what if?

Just us
Freckles glowing pink when I make you blush
Rest assured I promise you there's no rush
And nothing wrong with going slow

Sunrise
Morning peeking through the crack on my blinds
Fingers tracing down the back of your spine
I'd be crazy if I ever let you go

Whoa, but what if?
I take a chance on you
Do what we wanna do
And what if?
These feelings keep on getting stronger
And our kisses get a little longer
It would be my honor...

What if you lie, you cheat, we fall apart?
You break my heart...
What if we grow old with a couple of kids?
What if?

Whoa, but what if?
I take a chance on you
Do what we wanna do
And what if?
These feelings keep on getting stronger
And our kisses get a little longer
It would be my honor...what if?
