

Losing My Mind

TCTS

Don't know which way I need to go
Can't get a hold I need control
I'm tryna find my way out
A way out but
There ain't nowhere to run
Nowhere for me to hide
I gotta give it all
So I'm not left behind

A feeling like I'm losing my mind
Sometimes it feels like losing my mind

You need to listen to your heart now, baby
The only one to stop you going crazy
You need to listen to your heart now, baby
Your head is leading you astray
Losing your way

When you let things play on the brain
A recipe for failure
When you can't see clearly
You're only gonna end up going crazy

You need to listen to your heart now, baby
You need to listen

A feeling like I'm
Feeling like I'm
A feeling like I'm losing my mind

A feeling like I'm
Feeling like I'm
A feeling like I'm losing my mind

A feeling like I'm
Feeling like I'm
A feeling like I'm losing my mind

A feeling like I'm
Feeling like I'm
A feeling like I'm losing my mind

You need to listen to your heart now, baby
The only one to stop you going crazy
You need to listen to your heart now, baby
Your head is leading you astray
Losing your way

When you let things play on the brain
A recipe for failure
When you can't see clearly
You're only gonna end up going crazy

A feeling like I'm
Feeling like I'm
A feeling like I'm losing my mind

A feeling like I'm
Feeling like I'm
