

Say Bye

Teairra Mari

You listen to your girls but don't be surprised if they want me
Our single just went number five in the country
You wanna break my bank/ Telling me you're leaving
You say that every time we argue/ I don't believe it
Hardly can see it I envy you wanna say it
Tonight you'll be calling me/Saying I'm the one you wanna be with

You gie me thats smile
All you ever do is lie
Go ahead go out
Cause I'm clearing house
And you won't be around no more
That girl from the mall
Said that you are only friends
That's all but I can't believe you
Cause you're a cheater so I'm showing you the door

Forget all the bottle poppin' and the make-up bag with the rolex watches
That don't mean that I can't see that you've been doing me so damn wrong
You got me so messed up
And I wanna let you know
I am saying bye bye
I am saying bye bye
I can't take it I am fed up
I wanna let you know
I am saying bye I am saying bye boy

Bye bye bye bye

Numbers ain't all you get
Boy do you think I am stupid
You are with this one and that one
.. I got surprise for you
.. all I need you don't need to call on me
She took my love for grant it ...

And now that .. make a .. watching
That don't mean that I can't see ..
You got me so messed up
I wanna let you know
I am saying bye bye
I can't take it I am fed up
I wanna let you know
I am saying bye I am saying bye boy

Bye bye bye bye

I am saying bye bye
You should know
We are no more
You got me so messed up
I wanna let you know
I am saying bye bye
I can't take it I am fed up
I wanna let you know
