

She's Amazing

Team Dresch

It's where the obvious turns dumb and clarity turns off I'm standing somewhere near the back of the room I'm on her left I'm in between her

she's amazing
her words save me
she holds her head as if it's truth where the last one passed me by...

read about her in the papers and on TV they say she's outspoken many people will try to destroy her but if she were to stop I stop we all stop

she's amazing
her words save me
she holds her head as if it's truth
where the last one passed me by...

I'm sorry my mistake do I sound strange I always wanted to make sense I fell flat I have in I gave in you cannot trust all lies I always wanted to make sense do I lose...

she's amazing
her words save me
she holds her head and it's truth...
