Fool

Team Me

These clever phrases you made up Made up and memorized Memorized And you pretend you're well-read but everyone knows the truth Knows the truth

Way too caught up in yourself You run while the others walk While the others talk At your feet lies a pearl The key to your everything Your tragedy

When the preacher shuts his books and speaks straight from his heart You suddenly see all Suddenly feel all

As the four winds get a hold of every bone you own You suddenly see her Suddenly feel

These clever phrases you made up
Made up and memorized
Memorized
You pretend you're well read but everyone knows the truth
Knows the truth

When the preacher shuts his books and speaks straight from his heart You suddenly see all Suddenly feel all

As the four winds get a hold of every bone you own You suddenly see her Suddenly feel

When the preacher shuts his books and speaks straight from his heart You suddenly see all Suddenly feel all

As the four winds get a hold of every bone you own You suddenly see her Suddenly feel