

Me and the Mountain

Team Me

Terminate
Shut it down
Take it all away
I lost my head again

Cover me
Cover me
Cover me again
I lost my head again

Promise me
Promise me
Promise me again

Say my name
Say my name
Say my name again
I lost my head again

Things are bad enough as they are
Things are bad enough as they are
And I'll let it go
Things are bad enough as they are
Things are bad enough as they are
And I'll rest my case
Things are bad enough as they are
Things are bad enough as they are

Follow me
Follow me
Follow me around
I lost my head again

Lie alone
Pack your bags
Pack your bags and leave

It held you down
Like a star
Held you down again
I lost my head again

Things are bad enough as they are
Things are bad enough as they are
And I'll let it go
Things are bad enough as they are
Things are bad enough as they are
And I'll rest my case
Things are bad enough as they are
Things are bad enough as they are
