A clydesdale, fly gail
Thick as hell, got swell
Long silky hair, white tail
The bad is brought in there, clydesdale

This ain't no small time broke dame, no change
This is guap off the top, she ain't joke mane
Ain't no foolery mane, she with the game and balling hard
A hella thicky with them curves like holy god
Meat jumping like the heat on the grease pumpin'
Now all the niggas all around they wanna freak something
A little belly but the jelly got enough pounds
To make the little booty bitches sit the fuck down
With that waggy tail, gotta watch out for grabby males
Gonna be mad he failed, he don't get to watch her shake them jazzy belles
With that much back she only gotta few that hate

Woah now, it's enough for them to go 'round
Those sounds like a packing clap in showdown
Hell yeah that's what I came to see
I dig strippin' on TV, I ain't Jermaine Dupri
Play the right music and she might move it
And some panties, skirt, and leggings fitting tight to it

Touching on her without her consent is quite foolish
She got the right dudes with that'll make ya night news it
To be a clydesdale (What?), you don't got to dance
You can be in your waitress, dentist, lawyer, even your doctor pants
She with money you ain't got it, there is not a chance stop your plans (Go!)
If out of you supreme money, gun you shot the bands
