

Please, don't push me I'm close to the edge (here)
Might be too close to the ledge (yeah)
Y'all don't want me in my head

I'm on the edge
I said it for the last time
When you had me believing every little last lie
Gave me reasons found out I never should've asked why...

See I'm usually as solid as metal tho
I've been used as a pawn or a vessel tho
Got the heart and the soul of a rebel tho
Momma told me that's just how the devil go
Then the homie he told me to let it go
Kickin' up all this dust let it settle bro
I be tryin' to they act forgetful tho
I be tryin' to they act like they don't remember that...

Please, don't push me I'm close to the edge (here)
Might be too close to the ledge (yeah)
Y'all don't want me in my head (here)
Really I said what I said (yeah)
Tell me that life isn't fair (here)
Tell me I wasn't prepared (yeah)
Tell me without even saying it that you ain't ready man what's in the air?
(Asinine if you harassing mine you went past the line and now)
