

Screen

Tech N9ne

You gotta keep a screen in front of you cause they wanna do
The wrongest to try to come at whose the wonderful one or two To punish you don't wanna be the hunted they'll point a gun at you

You can't let everyone step foot in your house more so in your life
Why you really knockin at my door
Don't let bad energy near you or you'll be poor souls with no light
You ain't comin in you gotta go!
I don't wanna hear it, I don't need it, I don't fear it
Evil spirit, I'm just gon' be nowhere near it
A really rough time that you bring
I don't wanna hear it, I don't need it, I don't fear it
Evil spirit, I'm just gon' be nowhere near it
I can hear you just fine through the screen

Before you open that screen doe, you gotta wonder what the scheme fo
The lingo they insane playin' games and got the scene so bingo or keno Bite ya till like you spilled pinot on your gringo things was clean though Hella scarred because you put down your guard you a target especially if you a star Ringo (chyeah!)
No K (chyeah), better never fall for the role play, devil comin yo way (chye ah)
You can bet that it's a cruel one comin if a bull come runnin better hope yo u get the olé
So pray that you get to bed well when they crash the villa one of your bro s tay
Shit ain't dolce, before you walk on the eggshells, put the cascariilla front of the doorway (chyeah)
If you let in Lestat, they get to suckin' until it's nothin', it's a dead en d to that
Put the lead in the gat and stop 'em before they get in to chat, Ozzy up and I'm beheading the bat (chyeah)
I am tired of screenin' lookin' for damn liars when it transpires but we do win the battles
So before you enter thee campfire, don't tell a energy vampire what we do in the shadows

They are fishin' to try to complete a dark mission picthin' ya hard living, discard this
And start mixin' with what the hearts gifting when stars glisten, in cars ki ssin', better behind a partition (chyeah)
'Cause everybody not live up on the screen the pre recorded hot lies
Can have a heart speed racin' like it's a Mach 5
But the screen intervenes and make it so we never swat flies (chyeah)
Your cash (chyeah) can get 'em poppin up right at your pad lookin' for the c ore stab (chyeah)

Steady wishin' for blood and gore bad (chyeah), get it outta you but never try to get it out a whores ass (chyeah)
So when the forecast (chyeah) gotcha feelin' like a tornado tore past, know they wanna pour gas (chyeah)
On what the Moors have (chyeah), never open the screen to some more trash, knockin' like a DoorDash (chyeah)
Pinche, cabron knockin' on where the king stay home where queen lay Better gone for the thing spray, fuckin' wit the wrong Kunta Kinte Kong, don't belong in the screenplay
That'll bring hataz up in my circle to make a scene slay ya
I'm euphoric like I was Zendaya but I keep a killer on my screen saver
