

You Line!

Tech N9ne

Rap, rap
Cap, cap, cap
Yap, yap, yap
Serious, we ain't hearing it

Somebody give him a polygraph or something, I think he faking it (Yeah)
Look at him flashing the signing bonus on the 'Gram like he making it (Yeah)
Been bogie though, him so below figures
Then yield the dough when OVO them, those Pinocchio niggas
Be lying like a rug, he rhyme like a thug, behind brother love
Design quite a buzz, the people be blind by the mug
That's a put on, the imminence front, when it gets fucked
Him and his feminists finna get imminent, and a bitch live in this punk
Be yourself
Why he got to act like he solid when he gon' melt?
Don't undo your belt 'cause under your khakis they see your welts
Killed shine, exposing your chilled spine
I'll rhymes, but all the killer niggas in real time

Already know you lyin'
When you ain't got it, gon' show you lyin'
Heard cap 'bout a lot of dough few times
That ain't so, you lyin', and it flow, through ridin', let it go
Already know you lyin'
When you ain't got it, gon' show you lyin'
Heard cap 'bout a lot of dough few times
That ain't so, you lyin', and it flow, through ridin', let it go

Yeah, look at you now, look at you now, look at you now
Taking a bow, waving a thou', running afoul
Got a lot of dollars, yeah, me too
Fucks given, yeah we do
Sucks, yes, when they busting 'bout success and it's evil
Two and a ten, it ain't equal, pulling a stunt on the people
Give 'em what they want 'cause they so want it blunt that they don't even know that's see-through Better hide wills when they see you, half mil', it ain't legal
Or a nigga like Trick Trick, Muggs, Big U, so they won't leak you
I see these niggas on IG
Money phones, money long when the camera on
Might be they figures, it might be
Well don't trick, me and N9na drip with no jewelry on

Already know you lyin'
When you ain't got it, gon' show you lyin'
Heard cap 'bout a lot of dough few times
That ain't so, you lyin', and it flow, through ridin', let it go
Already know you lyin'
When you ain't got it, gon' show you lyin'
Heard cap 'bout a lot of dough few times
That ain't so, you lyin', and it flow, through ridin', let it go

So many broken promises and never really knew what honest is
When I bomb and get this low level reconnaissance
Nothing left but a padlock cash box
When a nigga brag lots, ass shots
He the funny man, he mascot, that mosque

Talking 'bout they got a backdrop, a half knot
They tell you fake it to make it
To chase it is basic, so you take it and rape it
You wake in the matrix
With the ape, it's the hate that you place, it can take it to break it
So not a soldier
Who let you come walk in the culture?
You psycho for talking to Oprah
'Cause you niggas is softer than boba
Nigeria day upon these delirious race of dummies
A serious way to come, she suspiria de profundis
Energy put in the universe
Gonna double back and get active
So the fact is, if you baptist
Don't be gang gang in your rap shit

Already know you lyin'
When you ain't got it, gon' show you lyin'
Heard cap 'bout a lot of dough few times
That ain't so, you lyin', and it flow, through ridin', let it go
Already know you lyin'
When you ain't got it, gon' show you lyin'
Heard cap 'bout a lot of dough few times
That ain't so, you lyin', and it flow, through ridin', let it go
