

Ordinary Man

Teddy Geiger

I'm just an ordinary man
Just trying to do the best I can
A million faces in the sand
Just trying to find out where I stand
Where I stand

I skipped my heart across the sea
And let the water set me free
Give me a reason to believe
Rescue these forgotten dreams

I've always been afraid to change
And I don't wanna make the same mistake
When you lose it all
You find yourself the strength to start again
And start again yeah

I'm just an ordinary man
You saw beauty in my hands
In time we'll learn to love again
It's been so hard to understand

I've always been afraid to fall
That's the only way to change my life
When you lose it all
You find yourself the strength to start again

How many times can I walk away
I finally said what I need to say
Nothing to lose and almost everything to gain
I open my eyes to another day
I'm learning to see in a different way
I know that in the end that love will always find a way

I've always been afraid to fall
I've always been afraid to say it all
'Cause when you lose it all
With nothing left to say
When you lose it all
Your love will find a way
When you lose it all
You find yourself the strength to start again
Start again

I'm just an ordinary man
