Return to Me

Teddy Geiger

I've been gone so long
I can't sleep tonight
I've been reaching in the dark
Where you used to lie
And in my dreams, I am lost
In a room full of doors
Every one that I try to open
I feel like there's a hundred more

I hear your voice, I hear your voice
Echo in the back of my mind
You said, "Only then will my heart be unbroken
Only then will I be free
Only then will the words be unspoken
Only when you return to me"

I still remember the last time that I saw you
You were laughing, we were dancing in the rain
I still remember the way you looked at me
It was like you could see the future but you're smilin' anyway
Oh, it was like you could see the future but you're smilin' any way

And you said, "Only then will my heart be unbroken
Only then will I be free
Only then will the words be unspoken
Only when you return to me"

"Return to me"
"Return to me"
"Return to me"
"Only when you return to me"

"Only when you return to me"
