

Second Time Around

Teddy Geiger

Youth still finds me being wrong
But now I don't care what you are
We who were so vulnerable weren't right
But now we don't know who we are (Thinking always rising falling)

Drawing pictures in my head to pretend this world is sane
Well I've gotta make it work
Til I meet my ending verse

I can't keep turning on
And I know it's gonna hurt
Til I meet my ending verse

Til I meet my ending verse
