

Amélie

Teddy Hyde

Light the candles, light the fuse
Open windows fight the fumes
This air won't do
Shut the blinds and sleep 'til noon
Eat my heart out with a spoon

Amélie, Amélie
Amélie, Amélie

Out of rhythm, out of tune
Inspiration out of view
And then came you
Eager spark that blew a fuse
Beat my heart out, you're my muse

Amélie, Amélie
Won't you break, won't you break?
Honestly, I'm a fake
You're my break, you're my brains

I would know, no ounce of doubt
Without the note you wrote in fire on the roof
Only now I know I am what I'm without
And I'll love you like it's proof

Amélie, Amélie
Won't you break, won't you break?
Honestly, I'm a fake
You're my break, you're my brains, Amélie
Show your face, show your face
Amélie, Amélie
Amélie, Amélie
