

Liar

Teddy Swims

I bend
Bend til I break
Give you everything you
Ya take and you take
For goodness sake

Stop
Won't you have a heart
Like you did from a start
Are we falling apart
'Cause I'm here in the dark

You say I never loved you
Said I never cared
Telling all your friends that I was never there
Oh, no that ain't fair

Now I'm calling you a Liar
Tell me who gon' love ya harder
It's a losing game when you're keeping score
When we don't even know why we're fighting
Look at what you started
Sick of walking on a wire
It's like we're sinking to the bottom
Feels like we're punching underwater
I feel waves, waves, waves
Pushing me away
I feel waves, waves, waves

Time
Time to be honest
I thought we were all in
Now it feels foreign
You're asking for space
Go
Go on without me
Go on and doubt me
Throw it all in my face

You say I never loved you
Said I never cared
Telling all your friends that I was never there
No, that ain't fair

Now I'm calling you a liar
Tell me who gon love ya harder
It's a losing game when your keeping score
When we don't even know why we're fighting
Look at what you started
Sick of walking on a wire
It's like we're sinking to the bottom
I feel the waves
Pushing me away

Don't know why

I try so hard to be
What you need

Now I'm calling you a Liar
I feel waves
Pushing me away
