

Picky

Teddy Swims

She's so picky
But she don't ever know what she wants
Yeah
Girl, are you with me?
Are you just leading me on?
Yeah, yeah, yeah
You always change your mind, you keep me guessing
Girl, you know you're fine and this is stressful
I know the elephant in the room needs addressing
When you start undressing
I forget it, we can get it on
You put a little arch in your back
Throw me outta wack
She gonna get me coming right back
Yeah, yeah, yeah
She got everything that I lack
Baby even got a fat ass
Got an even bigger rack
How she got it like that
She's so picky
She don't ever know what she wants
Girl, are you with me?
Are you just leading me on? (yeah, yeah, yeah)

Remember back of the class
I was gripping on your thighs
Trying to get to third base
You gon' have to let me slide
Run that game to home plate
We go half on a child, hold up
Now you wanna change your mind?
All that back and forth shit, baby
You just can't decide
Hell and I can't even flex
Girl that make me feel alive
Sorry you feel indifferent
I'm really bad about listening
Trust me baby I'm with you
Just pull up and we can still kick it
She's so picky
She don't ever know what she wants
Girl, are you with me?
Are you just leading me on?
Out of all the girls in all the world
That I could ever love
I get so lucky to find
One that can't make up her mind
Out of all the girls in all the world
That I could ever love
I get so lucky to find
One that makes me feel alive

She's so picky
She don't ever know what she wants
Girl are you with me?
Are you just leading me on?
