

I Feel

Teddy Thompson

It's gone or it's going, this feeling I know it
And there's nothing I can do to bring it back
It was love if I wanted but I chose to ignore it
It was nothing that you did or should've done

I feel so unclear
(The rise, the fall, the pain)
I feel so much fear
(It's coming back again)
I feel, I feel, I feel

There's a road that I travel and it's long and it's narrow
Without signs along the way to take you home
You were there when I needed something to believe in
But I'll only let you down and break your heart

I feel so unclear
(The rise, the fall, the pain)
I feel so much fear
(It's coming back again)
I feel, I Feel, I Feel

Oh, and it's coming apart at the seams
Oh, and I'm bleeding into my dreams

I Feel so unclear
(The rise, the fall, the pain)
Always so much fear
(It's coming back again)
I Feel so unclear
(The rise, the fall, the pain)
I feel, I feel, I feel
