

Take Me Back Again

Teddy Thompson

I'm hoping that you'll take me back again
How many times can I mess up again?
I've had my chance at this romance
But I'm hoping that you'll take me back, back again

I could have made some better choices here
And there were times I guess I didn't care
But all along you were the one
I'm hoping that you'll take me back, back again

I know you're hoping to move on
But now I've written you this song
You may resist, oh but I insist
So let's get back to where we were, we were

I'm hoping that you'll take me back again
I'm hoping that you'll take me back again
I'm hoping that you'll take me, I'm hoping that you'll take me
I'm hoping that you'll take me back again, oh

Take me back again, oh
I'm hoping that you'll take me back again, oh
I'm hoping that you'll take me, you'll take me
You'll take me back again, you'll take me back again
